Foreign Modernism Cosmopolitanism Identity And Style In Paris:

Foreign Modernism Ihor Junyk, 2013-01-01 At the beginning of the twentieth century Paris was the cosmopolitan hub of Europe and home to a vast number of foreigners including the writers painters sculptors and musicians who were creating works now synonymous with modernism itself such as Les Femmes d'Alger The Rite of Spring and Ulysses The situation at the end of the period however could not have been more different even before the violence of the Second World War the cosmopolitan avant garde had largely abandoned Paris driven out by nationalism xenophobia and intolerance Foreign Modernism investigates this tense and transitional moment for both modernism and European multiculturalism by looking at the role of foreigners in Paris's artistic scene Examining works of literature sculpture ballet and performing arts music and architecture Ihor Junyk combines cultural history with contemporary work in transnationalism and diaspora studies Junyk emphasizes how migr artists used radical new forms of art to resist the culture of virulent nationalism taking root in France and to articulate new forms of cosmopolitan identity The Primitivist Imaginary in Iberian and Transatlantic Modernisms Joana Cunha Leal, Mariana Pinto dos Santos, 2023-12-07 Taking into account politics history and aesthetics this edited volume explores the main expressions of primitivism in Iberian and Transatlantic modernisms Ten case studies are thoroughly analyzed concerning both the circulations and exchanges connecting the Iberian and Latin American artistic and literary milieus with each other and with the Parisian circles Chapters also examine the patterns and paradoxes associated with the manifestations of primitivism including their local implications and cosmopolitan drive This book opens up and deepens the discussion of the ties that Spain and Portugal maintained with their imperial pasts which extended into European twentieth century colonialism as well as the nationalist and folk aesthetics promoted by the cultural industry of Iberian dictatorships The book significantly rethinks long established ideas about modern art and the production of primitivist imagery The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Iberian studies Latin American studies colonialism and modernism The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Edinburgh Dictionary of Modernism Vassiliki Kolocotroni, 2017-12-20 This book examines how the productive interplay between nineteenth century literary and visual media paralleled the emergence of a modern psychological understanding of the ways in which reading viewing and dreaming generate moving images in the mind April in Paris Irena R. Makaryk, 2018-01-01 Attracting over fifteen million visitors the 1925 Paris Expo had an ambitious goal to create a new modernist style which would reflect the great scientific industrial and technological advances that produced a new spirit known as modern In April in Paris author Irena R. Makaryk explores the theatre arts vital cultural and political impact at this celebrated international exhibition Drawing extensively from unexplored archival documents from France Austria and North America April in Paris is the first major study to focus on theatre arts at the 1925 Paris Expo and the audacious Soviet contributions to this fair

Turning a spotlight on the uses and representations of theatricalized spaces Makaryk analyses their political challenge at a time when relations between the West and the USSR were rife with tension Copiously illustrated with beautiful colour and black and white illustrations this book elucidates the complex role of the international fair as a catalyst for spirited cultural debate and for aesthetic change

Concepts of the World Effie Rentzou,2022-09-15 How did the avant garde imagine its interconnected world And how does this legacy affect our understanding of the global today The writers and artists of the French avant garde aspired to reach a global audience that would be wholly transformed by their work In this study Effie Rentzou delves deep into their depictions of the interwar world as an international and modern landscape one marked by a varied cosmopolitanism The avant garde s conceptualization of the world paralleled rejected or expanded prevailing notions of the global sphere The historical avant garde which encompassed movements like futurism Dada and surrealism was self consciously international operating across global networks and developed with the whole world as its horizon and its public In the heady period between the end of the Belle poque and the tumult of World War II both individual artists including Guillaume Apollinaire Blaise Cendrars Francis Picabia Louis Aragon Leonora Carrington and Nicolas Calas and collective endeavors such as surrealist magazines and exhibitions grappled with contemporary anxieties about economic growth imperialism and colonialism as well as various universalist cosmopolitan and internationalist visions By probing these works Concepts of the World offers an alternative narrative of globalization one that integrates the avant garde s enthusiasm for as well as resistance to the process Rentzou identifies within the avant garde a powerful political language that expressed the ambivalence of living and creating in an increasingly globalized world a language that profoundly shaped the way the world has been conceptualized and is experienced today

Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. Pettersen,2016-05-20 First book to focus on Americanism and its consideration of French film and literature The book is organized around individual figures texts and films making it easy to adopt for individual units in courses The book is written in clear accessible and jargon free language The book brings a new and innovative transatlantic perspective to 1930s French culture The books offers new perspectives on important figures that we thought we knew well The book mixes cultural history with the analysis of individual films and novels in a way that is engaging to read

Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Eftychia Papanikolaou,Markus Rathey,2022-06-21 Sacred and Secular Intersections in Music of the Long Nineteenth Century Church Stage and Concert Hall explores interconnections of the sacred and the secular in music and aesthetic debates of the long nineteenth century The essays in this volume view the category of the sacred not as a monolithic attribute that applies only to music written for and performed in a religious ritual Rather the sacred is viewed as a functional as well as a topical category that enhances the discourse of cross pollination of musical vocabularies between sacred and secular compositions church and concert music Using a variety of methodological approaches the contributors articulate how sacred and religious identities coalesce reconcile fuse or intersect in works from the long nineteenth century that traverse an array of genres and compositional styles Georgette Chen Russell Storer, 2021 Paris Shanghai and New York Georgette Chen one of Singapore's foremost artists once counted these cultural capitals as home and cut her teeth as a painter there Chen eventually found in Singapore a veritable paradise enchanted by its tropical climes and unexpected forms These remarkable and cosmopolitan life experiences have informed Chen's uniquely syncretic artistic practice and aesthetic style With over 100 full colour image plates and archival material along with critical essays this monograph brings new perspectives on her independent artistic voice and vital role as an educator in the development of modern art in Singapore Cosmopolitan Modernisms Kobena Mercer, 2005-08-19 Moments of crisis and innovation in modernism's cross cultural past from the reception of modernist art in colonial India to the experience of African American artists in the New York art world of the 1950s This first book in the Annotating Art's Histories series revisits the period in which modernist attitudes took shape examining the ways in which a shared history of art and ideas was experienced in different nations and cultures Original essays by leading art historians and curators trace the dynamic interplay of cultures across the story of modern art looking at moments of crisis and innovation in modernism's cross cultural past An account of colonialism and nationalism in Indian art from the 1890s to the 1920s for example suggests that cultural identities are constantly modifying one another in the very moment of their encounter and points to primitivism as a counter discourse to modernism A collision between modernism and colonialism in the design of a Bauhaus model housing project reveals the volatile conditions of European modernism in the 1930s Discussions of the abstract painting of Norman Lewis and the collages of Romare Bearden illustrate the conflicted experiences and multiple affiliations of African American artists in the New York art world of the 1940s and 1950s The first English translation of an influential essay in the Brazilian neoconcrete movement of the 1950s takes up concerns similar to those of North American minimalism in the 1960s These and the other journeys into modernism's past described in Cosmopolitan Modernisms return to our contemporary moment with questions about modern art and modernity that we are only beginning to ask Copublished with iIVA Institute of International Visual Arts London Istanbul, Open City A.
