Forest Primeval Poems Vievee Francis:

Forest Primeval Vievee Francis, 2016-01-31 Another Anti Pastoral the opening poem of Forest Primeval confesses that sometimes words fail With a bleat in her throat the poet identifies with the voiceless and wild things in the composed imposed peace of the Romantic poets with whom she is in dialogue Vievee Francis's poems engage many of the same concerns as her poetic predecessors faith in a secular age the city and nature aging and beauty Words certainly do not fail as Francis sets off into the wild world promised in the title The wild here is not chaotic but rather free and finely attuned to its surroundings The reader who joins her will emerge sensitized and changed by the enduring power of her work The

Shared World Vievee Francis, 2023-04-14 The latest collection from award winning poet Vievee Francis The Shared World imagines the ideas and ideals and spaces of the Black woman The book delves into inherited memories and restrictions between families lovers and strangers and the perception and inconvenient truth of Black woman as mother with or without child Francis challenges the ways in which Black women are often dismissed while expected to be nurturing This raw assemblage of poetic narratives stares down the oppressors from within and writes a new language in the art of taking back the body and the memory These poetic narratives are brutal in their lyrical blows but tender with the bruised history left behind You can't stop this song she writes More hands than yours have closed around my throat Francis's lyric gifts are on full display as she probes self discovery history intimacy and violence Her voice encompasses humor and gravity enigma and revelation What emerges is a realm of intertwined experiences The secret to knowing the secret is to speak she concludes but we too often tell the stories of no matter and avoid the one story that does matter In truth we are bound by one story so you'd think by now we'd tell it at least to each other Advanced Poetry Kathryn Nuernberger, Maya Jewell

Zeller, 2023-12-28 A text for practiced poets this book offers a springboard beyond the basics into more daring poetic traditions experimentation and methods It lays out the myriad conversations influencing contemporary poetics paying attention to its roots in historical and theoretical thinking With a focus on innovation and breaking established boundaries Advanced Poetry introduces you to the poetics shaping the contemporary literary moment first guiding you through the contexts and principles of these forms using a range of practical examples before prompting you to pick up the pen yourself Spanning decades and continents and covering the rich field of poets writing today this book shows how to read explicate and write poetry and includes discussion of received traditions and innovative forms confessional and epistolary poetry aesthetic experimentation with voice methods and theories developed by early Surrealists deep image and the poetics of spells ecopoetics poetry of place writing the body based on queer theory and disability studies docupoetics and lyric research racial imaginaries and poetics of liberation digital poetics writing in community with other poets and collaborative interdisciplinary projects revision processes and putting together a collection or chapbook advice on writing artist statements and other professional materials Bringing together a comprehensive craft guide with a carefully collated anthology
