guilt remains a universal human concern this book considers confession via the classic confessional texts of Augustine and Rousseau Employing this framework John D Sykes Jr examines Goethe s The Sorrows of Young Werther Dostoevsky s Notes from Underground Percy s Lancelot and McEwan s Atonement to investigate the evolution of confession and guilt in literature from the eighteenth century to the early twenty first century Stones in the Road E.B. Story Logic and the Craft of Fiction Catherine Brady,2010-09-15 This book illuminates how technique serves story logic the particular way fiction makes meaning Writers raid the cupboard of theory looking for what works and generic rules don t account for the rich variety of strategies they employ For writers who are past the beginner stage Brady offers a closer look at craft fundamentals including plot characterization patterns of imagery and style The lively lucid discussion draws on vivid examples from classic and contemporary fiction ranging from George Eliot and William Faulkner to Haruki Murakami and Toni Morrison Because it supplies the analytical tools needed to read as a writer this text will enrich the reader s approach to any work of fiction energizing discussion in a workshop or craft course Prinkle and His Friends. A Novel James Shearer (Novelist.),1877 Character Christian B. Miller,R. Michael Furr,Angela Knobel,William Fleeson,2015 This collection contains some of the best new work being done on the subject of character in philosophy theology and psychology From a virtual reality simulation of the Milgram shock experiments to an understanding of the virtue of modesty in Muslim societies these 31 chapters significantly advance our understanding of character The Expository Times ,1894

Beacham's Guide to Literature for Young Adults ,1989 A multi volume compilation of more than 200 analytical essays on and study activities for fictional and biographical works written for young adults Includes a short biography for the author of each analyzed work The Image of Christ in Russian Literature John Givens,2018-05-29 Vladimir Nabokov complained about the number of Dostoevsky s characters sinning their way to Jesus In truth Christ is an elusive figure not only in Dostoevsky s novels but in Russian literature as a whole The rise of the historical critical method of biblical criticism in the nineteenth century and the growth of secularism it stimulated made an earnest affirmation of Jesus in literature highly problematic If they affirmed Jesus too directly writers paradoxically risked diminishing him either by deploying faith explanations that no longer persuade in an age of skepticism or by reducing Christ to a mere argument in an ideological dispute The writers at the heart of this study understood that to reimage Christ for their age they had to make him known through indirect even negative ways lest what they say about him be mistaken for cliché doctrine or naïve apologetics The Christology of Dostoevsky Leo Tolstoy Mikhail Bulgakov and Boris Pasternak is thus apophatic because they deploy negative formulations saying what God is not in their writings about Jesus Professions of atheism in Dostoevsky and Tolstoy's non-divine Jesus are but separate negative paths toward truer discernment of Christ This first study in English of the image of Christ in Russian literature highlights the importance of apophaticism as a theological practice and a literary method in understanding the Russian Christ It also emphasizes the importance of skepticism in Russian literary attitudes toward Jesus on the part of writers whose private crucibles of doubt produced some of the most provocative and enduring images of Christ in world literature This important study will appeal to scholars and students of Orthodox Christianity and Russian literature as well as educated general readers interested in religion and nineteenth century Russian novels
