Forgiveness A Memoir:

Forgiveness Chiquis Rivera, 2015-04-07 I wrote this book not to dismiss a rumor but to share something much more important my journey to forgiveness Chiquis Rivera is a singer and the daughter of the late music superstar Jenni Rivera In Forgiveness her memoir Chiquis bravely reveals the abuse she suffered at the hands of her father during her childhood and the difficulties she s faced in her personal life as a result Despite growing up marked by the wounds of abuse she eventually conquered her fear of love and intimacy The story within these pages also recounts what caused the distance between her and her mother toward the end of Jenni s life In Forgiveness Chiquis brings to light truths that she wishes she had been able to reveal to Jenni Two years after her mother s death Chiquis answers the most difficult questions Was she able to make peace with Jenni And in this story of triumph and tragedy who is most in need of forgiveness Forgiveness Chiquis

Smith, 2010-01-01 How do you forgive a person who has hurt your deeply Why forgive someone who does not deserve to be forgiven Forgiveness is not easy and often we discover that the person who needs to be forgiven the most is ourselves As we forgive others and ourselves we find that we are the ones who have benefited forgiveness brings a peace to our lives that no one can take away from us Learning to Forgive A Memoir of Doubt and Faith is the author s personal journey of forgiveness from a spiritual and psychological point of view The book shows the reader how they can use their relationship with God the resources of the Christian faith and their psychological understanding of themselves to learn how to forgive As readers see that pastors are not immune to the challenges of everyday life nor are they spared from abusive backgrounds they will be encouraged to embark on their own journeys of forgiveness or receive strength and hope for a journey already started Memoirs of Archbishop Temple: London memoir, 1885-1896 Ernest Grey Sandford,1906 Unforgivable? Stephen Cherry,2024-03-28 Forgiveness is a lovely idea wrote C S Lewis and in recent decades it has been seen and admired in situations ranging from therapy to politics and proposed as a constructive pathway in the aftermath of abuse and atrocity Not everyone is impressed however and in parallel with praise and promotion of forgiveness cries of unforgivable are uttered with increased shrillness and frequency In this hugely compelling wide ranging and thought provoking book Stephen Cherry argues that while forgiveness can be transformative in the aftermath of harm it can also if not handled with care become an additional pressure and anxiety for those who have been harmed He teases out the way in which Christian understandings often lie behind pressure to forgive identifying a number of typical mistakes with the Christian approach to forgiveness Reflecting on many examples from real life as well as literature and on the insights of psychologists and philosophers Cherry uses the tension between the desire to forgive and the protest that a person is unforgivable to push towards understandings of forgiveness that avoid the harshness of binary models Forgiveness is not he insists the only good way forward after harm A positive understanding of non vengeful unforgiveness is vital if the harmed are to be given the care and support they need and deserve and if forgiveness itself is to be authentic and liberating Cherry s challenging book brims with energy and blends human insight with intellectual vision It argues that if forgiveness is to play a part in the aftermath of harm without inflicting further harm it must be presented in a non idealized way and only following acknowledgement of the depth of the human impact of the harm done Is this a Culture of Trauma? An Interdisciplinary Perspective Jessica Aliaga Lavrijsen,Michael Bick,2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 The 20th century has been characterised by an unprecedented violence that seems to have left an imprint in contemporary societies from the two World Wars or the terrorist attack of 9 11 to natural catastrophes or sexual abuse All of these terrible experiences have been collected represented and communicated by many different people especially in the last few decades as seen in the high number of books and films dealing with traumatic experiences As a result an interdisciplinary trauma studies field has emerged At the 2nd Global Conference Trauma Theory and Practice an interdisciplinary conference hosted in Prague in the spring of 2012 academics and professionals met to explore and debate issues surrounding the experience of individual and collective traumas their representations in art and some theoretical approaches to trauma This book is a collection of the papers presented at the conference a snapshot of the current work in the field of trauma studies

Memory, Narrative, and Forgiveness Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, Chris Van der Merwe, 2009 The United Nations TM declaration of 2009 as the International Year of Reconciliation is testimony to the growing use of historical commissions as instruments of reconciliation in post conflict societies Since the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC has had a profound impact on international efforts to deal with the aftermath of mass violence and societal conflict this is an appropriate time for scholars to debate and reflect on the work of the TRC and the wide ranging scholarship it has inspired across disciplines With a foreword by Harvard Law Professor Martha Minow

Memory Narrative and Forgiveness Perspectives on the Unfinished Journeys of the Past offers readers a front row seat where a team of scholars draw on both theoretical analysis and case studies from around the world to explore the themes of memory narrative forgiveness and apology and how these themes often interact in either mutually supportive or unsettling ways The book is a vibrant discussion by scholars in philosophy psychology psychoanalytic theory history literary theory and Holocaust studies The authors explore the complex interconnected issues of trauma and narrative testimonial and literary narrative and theatre as narrative mourning and the potential of forgiveness to heal the enduring effects of mass trauma and transgenerational trauma memory as a basis for dialogue and reconciliation in divided societies The authors go well beyond the South African TRC and address a wide range of historical events to explore the possibilities and the challenges that lie on the path of reconciliation and forgiveness between victims perpetrators and bystanders in societies with a history of violent conflict and unspeakable injustice The book provides readers with a cohesive theoretically well grounded analysis of the impact of traumatic memories in the personal and communal lives of survivors of trauma It explores how narrative may be creatively applied in processes of healing trauma and how public testimony can often restore the moral balance of societies ravaged by trauma The book deepens understanding of the ways in which lessons from the TRC might be developed and both usefully and cautiously applied in other post conflict situations
