Forms For Kids To Fill Out:

In There with the Kids David Kobrin, 2004-12-15 The best teachers says David Kobrin think about who their students are and how they learn In this age of standardized tests and teacher proof lesson plans they recognize that teaching is a rich and complex activity that demands professional skill sound judgment and quick thinking This second edition of In There with the Kids presents the parallel working lives of two teachers elementary teacher Mel Stainko and high school teacher Hilary Coles We see these teachers composites drawn from the author s experience and observations in schools as they plan lessons interact with students reflect on what happens in the classroom and try always to do better Through them we are prompted to think carefully about why some lessons work and others don t Kobrin brings us into the classroom where we hear the voices of individual students and see how their concerns influence what happens each day He provides detailed reconstructions of student debates and includes the handouts exams and assessment instructions used for selected lessons At the close of each chapter he analyzes the characters actions the motives behind them and their effects on events in the classroom Both practical and inspiring In There with the Kids demonstrates that by tailoring lessons to students life experiences teachers can help students reach new levels of achievement Note This product listing is for the Adobe Acrobat PDF version of the book Books for Kids 9-12: BODY SWAP: Catastrophe!!! (A very funny book for boys and girls) Katrina Kahler, 2017-04-01 Swapping bodies might be fun for some but when 12 year old Jack Stevenson wakes up from a freak accident one day and finds himself in his dad s body his life abruptly becomes one huge disaster after another When he realizes that his dad will have to go to school in his place things instantly get much much worse Tangled Up in School Jan Nesor, 2013-11-26 Based on two years of ethnographic fieldwork in an urban elementary school this volume is an examination of how school division politics regional economic policies parental concerns urban development efforts popular cultures gender ideologies racial politics and university and corporate agendas come together to produce educational effects Unlike conventional school ethnographies the focus of this work is less on classrooms than on the webs of social relations that embed schools in neighborhoods cities states and regions Utilizing a variety of narratives and analytical styles this volume explores how curriculum innovations are simultaneously made possible by and undermined by school district politics neighborhood histories and the spatial and temporal organizations of teachers and parents lives situates the educational discourse of administrators and teachers in the changing economic and political climates of the city analyzes the motivations behind an effort by school and business proponents to refashion classrooms within the school into business enterprises and of children s efforts to make sense of the scheme examines the role of the school as a neighborhood institution situating it at the intersections of city planners efforts to regulate city space and children s efforts to carve out live spaces through out of school routines contemplates the meaning of school as a site for bodily experience and looks at how patterns of space and control in the school shaped children s bodies and at how they continued to use body based languages to construct maturity gender and race and investigates the school as a space for the deployment of symbolic resources where children learned and constructed identities through their engagements with television comic books movies and sports Tangled Up In School raises questions about how we draw the boundaries of the school about how schools fit into the lives of children and cities and about what we mean when we talk about school
