Fortress Europe Inside The War Against Immigration:

Fortress Europe Matthew Carr, 2015-11 Revised and updated for 2015 Matthew Carr provides an urgent investigation into Europe's militarised borders In a series of searing dispatches he speaks to border officers and police officials migrants asylum seekers and activists from across the continent in a ground breaking critique of an epic political institutional and humanitarian failure that now threatens the future of the European Union itself Insight Turkey 2017 - Summer 2017 (Vol. 19, No.4) , Reclaiming the Region Russia the West and the Middle East The Latest Issue of Insight Turkey Is Published In its last issue of 2017 Insight Turkey discusses Russia who has a strong say in many fields and how it steers international politics This special issue of Insight Turkey aims to discuss the continuities and changes in Russia's foreign policy priorities and strategies since the end of the Cold War Richard Sakwa Igor Torbakov Emre Er en and Nikolay Kozhanov analyze some of the most current events More specifically they address Russia's relations with the Trump administration Europe Turkey and Iran respectively Additionally Yury Barmin and Muhammet Ko ak on their papers deal with some crucial topics such as Russia's oil policies and the security narratives on Islam in Russia Three off topic commentaries and one off topic article finish off the dossier for this issue Tun Khin in his commentary assesses the genocide taking place in Burma The commentary of Othman Ali focuses on another important topic the conflict in Kirkuk which is under the rule of the Kurdistan Regional Government KRG Arguing on the importance that Kirkuk maintains for Turkey Ali gives suggestions on the options Turkey has and how this matter could be resolved Venezuela crisis another important crisis of the last month is brought to the readers through the commentary of Oliver Stuenkel Lastly Beril Dedeo lu and Tolga Bilener portray the integration process between India and ASEAN Reclaiming the Region Russia the West and the Middle East is the last issue for 2017 which has been a very successful year for Insight Turkey As with the previous issues we trust that our readers will find this issue informative and constructive Human Rights, the Family, and Internationalism Since the Nineteenth Century Julia

Moses, 2025-07-17 This book examines one of the key issues shaping global considerations of human rights today the idea of the family as a protected category Bringing together historians political scientists legal scholars and historical sociologists the book investigates how ideas about the family and sexuality intersected with thinking about human rights for example through new international law and international institutions social movements targeting issues related to religion gender and sexuality historical developments such as war and the collapse of empires and developments in the social sciences It features case studies on regions around the globe as well as on relevant international organisations and individuals who have been influential in this area In doing so the contributors to this collection interrogate the relationship between human rights related to the family and broader debates about rights related to gender and sexuality Border Criminologies from the Periphery José A. Brandariz, Giulia Fabini, Cristina Fernández-Bessa, Valeria Ferraris, 2025-02-04 This book contributes to and broadens the field of Border Criminology by bringing together a collection of chapters from leading scholars engaged in cross

national and comparative conversations on bordered penalty and crimmigration practices with a specific focus on research conducted in places that may be considered peripheral and semi peripheral jurisdictions It builds not only on global criminological debates but also on southern criminological concerns thereby enriching border criminology conversations by expanding the epistemological boundaries of these academic debates It asks a variety of questions What is the part being played by detention practices at the national level and how is it changing over time To what extent are deportation policies playing a significant role in the coercive management of unwanted noncitizens Is the criminal justice system and more precisely the prison system crucially supplementing the immigration enforcement apparatus in handling undocumented noncitizen groups Should that be the case is the increasing criminalization of noncitizens leading to the consolidation of a dual criminal justice system It is essential reading for those engaged in Border Criminology Southern Criminology and Comparative Criminal Justice Identities, Borderscapes, Orders Benjamin Tallis, 2023-02-06 This book provides a pre history of Russia s war on Ukraine and Europe s relations to it illuminating the deep roots of the EU s neighbourhood crisis as well as the migration crises the Union created in the last decade To do so the book employs a new and innovative framework that allows for a comprehensive yet nuanced analysis of borders and a more cogent interpretation of their socio political consequences Drawing on interdisciplinary scholarship the book analytically examines the key common elements of borderscapes and links them in related arrays to allow for nuanced evaluation of both their particular and cumulative effects as well as interpretation of their overall consequences particularly for issues of identities and orders The book offers a significant conceptual and theoretical advance providing a transferable conceptualization of borderscapes to guide research analysis and interpretation Drawing on the author s experience in policy practice and academia it also makes a methodological contribution by pushing the boundaries of reflexivity in interpretive International Relations IR research Analyzing three main sites in Central and Eastern Europe CEE the book challenges conventional critical wisdom on EU bordering in the Schengen zone at its external frontiers and in its Eastern neighborhood In so doing it sheds new light on the politics of post communist transitions as well as the contemporary politics of CEE It also shows how EU bordering and its relations to identities and orders created great benefits for many Europeans but also hindered the lives of many others and became self defeating This book is a must read for scholars students and policy makers interested in a better understanding of Critical Border Studies CBS in particular and International Relations in general It will also appeal to anyone interested in CEE or wishing to get a deeper understanding of Russia s war and the fight for Europe s future Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long standing field of law and literature and vice versa Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship law and literature from a variety of disciplinary conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating challenging and re negotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes Citizenship as Literature Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature Conceptualising Citizenship

European Politics Tim Bale, 2017-04-28 A fully revised fourth edition of a popular introduction to the comparative politics of Europe written by a highly respected authority on the subject This lively and thematically organised text provides an accessible guide to the institutions and the issues that matter in a continent where the boundaries between East and West and between domestic and European affairs are increasingly breaking down Covering a wide array of countries it is a concise yet comprehensive overview of one of the world's most important and fascinating regions Written in an approachable style and packed with up to date real world examples and information this is the ideal place for students to begin and to deepen their understanding of Europe's politics It can be adapted as a standalone text on modules on Comparative European Politics and will be of use as a key reading on undergraduate courses on Comparative Politics more broadly as well as European Union Politics New to this Edition Updated throughout to provide coverage of developments such as the Eurozone crisis the growth of left and right wing populism the rise of nationalism and Europe's on going immigration challenge Includes a short concluding chapter rounding up and considering the future of the book's core themes of Europeanization and multilevel governance Additional country profiles on Croatia and Greece to ensure representative treatment of the key countries in Europe today

Fortress Europe Matthew Carr, 2012-09-04 Looks at the status of immigration in the world's most affluent region examining issues and the human cost of an immigration crisis across Europe in which tens of thousands of migrants have died

European Social Problems Stuart Isaacs, 2017-06-26 European Social Problems is the first book to examine social issues in Europe from the perspective of the social sciences It considers many of these social problems following the UK's leave vote Key topics examined here include immigration multiculturalism and religion health inequalities education riots and protest drugs and crime sexuality These core issues run as a thread through Europe and are experienced by Europeans themselves as social problems As such this text facilitates students direct engagement with some of the problematic constituents in their own lives This text is suitable for those studying social policy sociology politics international relations criminology and education studies In this way it functions as an accessible reader for final year undergraduates as well as postgraduate students

Ethnic Conflict and Migration in Europe Ethnobarometer Programme, Consiglio italiano per le scienze sociali, 1999

European and National Identities in Britain and Italy Rinella Cere, 2000 This text is a comparative study of European related news discourses of two countries of the European Union Britain and Italy The central hypothesis of the study is that specific historical cultural and political factors are powerful determinants of the differences in commitment toward the European project of both news media and political cultures and have led to different formulations of Europe. The book argues that the Italian nation state and national identities are inclusive at some levels of a European identity whereas the British state and national identities are on the whole exclusive of a European identity. This underlies the predominant negativity of British media news discourses on the question of Europe and the European Community in particular. New Left Review, 2002. Racism at the Top Ruth Wodak, Teun A. van Dijk, 2000. Migration and Activism in Europe Since 1945 Wendy Pojmann, 2008-09-15. The political and social activism of immigrants to Europe since 1945 takes the spotlight in this volume. Each of the twelve chapters draws on fresh research from international scholars who cover such conflict ridden themes as autonomous migrant organizing and transnational activism. From Afro Asian student protests and the sans papiers movement to the labor unions political parties and feminist groups the chapters offer a riveting look at a variety of migrant experiences in Europe. They also provide compelling material for a welcome comparison of the impact of migration on European countries as diverse as Germany France Belgium Sweden Spain and Italy. International and Comparative Law Review, 2000. The International Migration Review, 1997. Political Refugees Monica K. Zimmermann, 2008. A refugee is a person who owing to a well founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race religion nationality membership of a particular social group or political opinion is outside the country of their nationality and is unable to or owing to such fear is unwilling to avail him herself of the protection of that country according to the 1951 United Nations Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees. The concept of a refugee was expanded by the Conventions 1967 Protocol and by regional conventions in Africa and Latin America to include persons who had fled war or other violence in their home country. A person who is seeking to be recognised as a refugee is an asylum seeker. In the United States a recognised asylum seeker is known as an asylee. Refugee was defined as a legal group in response to the large numbers of people fleeing Eastern Europe following World War II. The lead international agency co ordinating refugee protection is the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees UNHCR which counted 28.4 million refugees world wide at the beginning of 2006. This was the lowest number since 1980. The major exception is the 4.3 million Palestinian refugees under the authority of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East UNRWA who are the only group to be granted refugee status to the descendants of refugees according to the above definition. The U S Committee for Refugees and Immigrants gives the world total as 12 019 700 refugees and estimates there are over 34 000 000 displaced by war including internally displaced persons who remain within the same national borders. The majority of refugees who leave their country seek asylum in countries neighbouring their country of nationality. The durable solutions to refugee populations as defined by UNHCR and governments are voluntary repatriation to the country of origin local integration into the country of asylum and resettlement to a third country. This book presents the latest thinking in this field. Current Politics and Economics of Russia, Eastern and Central Europe
