Global Issues for Global Citizens Vinay Kumar Bhargava, 2006-01-01 Written by 27 World Bank experts this book draws on the Bank's unique global capabilities and experience to promote an understanding of key global issues that cannot be solved by any one nation alone in an increasingly interconnected world. It describes the forces that are shaping public and private action to address these issues and highlights the Bank's own work in these areas. Covering four broad themes: global economy, global human development, global environment and global governance, this comprehensive volume provides an introduction to today's most pressing global issues from poverty to corruption. Geopolitics of Globalization Romanovski Zephirin, 2023-10-24 The book shows that from the last two decades of the twentieth century and the end of the Cold War in 1991, a shift occurred in inter-American geopolitics as the United States emerged as the dominant global structural power. The post-Cold War international relations and new geopolitics are predominantly driven by geoeconomic rationales and outclass the old Cold War geopolitics overwhelmingly dominated by state politics and security strategies. The post-Cold War geopolitics is largely tied to globalization as integrated flows laying out various interrelated social, economic, political and geographical networks in the Americas. As a result, the book states that the geopolitics of globalization sparks a geo-sociology and politics of scales shaping political geography and internal external politics and policies through the causes and effects of free trade areas, transnational migrations, human settlement patterns, ethnocultural and demographic changes, city growth and urban governance challenges. As well as discussing the issues of migration and cities, the book merges territoriality, geopolitics and globalization in the broader existing theoretical literature and analyzes the implications for the research community at large. As such, it appeals to students, academics, policy makers, journalists, activists and globalists looking for fresh thinking in the interplay of globalization and geopolitics in an era of global migration in global cities.
