Exploring Medical Anthropology:

Exploring Medical Anthropology Donald Joralemon, 2017-03-16 Now in its fourth edition Exploring Medical Anthropology provides a concise and engaging introduction to medical anthropology It presents competing theoretical perspectives in a balanced fashion highlighting points of conflict and convergence Concrete examples and the author's personal research experiences are utilized to explain some of the discipline's most important insights such as that biology and culture matter equally in the human experience of disease and that medical anthropology can help to alleviate human suffering The text has been thoroughly updated for the fourth edition including fresh case studies and a new chapter on drugs It contains a range of pedagogical features to support teaching and learning including images text boxes a glossary and suggested further reading

Exploring Medical Anthropology Sarah Julian, 2023-09-19 Medical anthropology is a subfield of anthropology that studies human health and disease health care systems and bio cultural adaptation It examines how health and illness are shaped experienced and understood in the context of global historical and political forces It addresses afflictions which are of increasing importance but are seldom sufficiently understood by biomedicine alone The fundamental areas of research within this field are cultures of medicine the social nature of emergent biotechnology the economics of bodily injury and psychic expressions of disorder It also investigates areas such as the impact of the formation of social networks on health the lived consequences of disability and inequality and the dynamic concepts of human biological difference and race This field focuses on how health problems arise from larger social issues which must also be addressed Medical anthropology strives to dissolve the stark divide between life sciences and social sciences This book contains some path breaking studies in the field of medical anthropology Researchers medical professionals and students associated with this field will be greatly assisted by it

Critical Dialogues in the Medical Humanities Emma Domínguez-Rué, Konrad Gunesch, 2019-06-21 This volume illustrates ongoing discussions in and about the medical humanities with studies on different approaches to the relationship between medical science and practice and the humanities including reflections based on fiction art history socio economic and political concerns architecture and natural landscapes The book explores the ways in which healthcare and medical practice can be positively influenced by removing the focus from the technical knowledge of the medical practitioner It offers innovative perspectives on spaces for healing traces attitudes and beliefs in relation to illnesses and their treatment throughout history including intimations of the future and interrogates cultural attitudes to illness doctoring and patients through the lens of fiction Based on the premise that more interdisciplinary work between medical and non medical professionals is needed the chapters contained in this volume contribute to an ongoing dialogue between medicine and the humanities that continues to enrich both disciplines

Ethics and Medical Decision-Making Michael Freeman, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2001 Ethical thinking about medical decision making has roots deep in history This collection of contemporary essays by leading international scholars traces the development of modern bioethics and explores the theory and current issues surrounding this widely contested field

Our Changing Journey to the End Christina Staudt, J. Harold Ellens, 2013-11-12 This novel cross disciplinary collection explains how dying death and grieving have changed in America for better or worse since the turn of the millennium What does dying with dignity mean in a diverse society with rapidly advancing technology an aging population and finite resources In this fascinating collection scholars from across the nation illuminate the remarkable changes that have taken place in recent years are now underway and loom on the horizon as they lead readers on an exploration of the ways Americans think about and handle dying and death Volume 1 New Paths of Engagement addresses changes in the circumstances and expressions of death dying and grief in 21st century America Volume 2 New Venues in the Search for Dignity and Grace delves into the challenges inherent in creating a medical and social system that allows for an optimal end of life experience for all and proposes ways in which society can be reshaped to move toward that ideal

Cultural Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak, 2000 Canadian Perspectives in Cultural Anthropology Alexander MacKay Ervin, 2001

African Migrations Ruth Breeze, Sarali Gintsburg, 2023-11-16 For centuries the people of Africa have been on the move seeking new opportunities fleeing from dangers or tragically uprooted through human greed and cruelty In the twenty first century with over 40 million people migrating from and within Africa each year it is clear that migration still has a significant impact on every aspect of African life For this reason Sarali Gintsburg and Ruth Breeze in their new book African Migrations Traversing Hybrid Landscapes explore the hybrid landscapes of African migration and provide new insights into the complexity of migratory movements and migrant experiences associated with the African continent Taking the view that the only ecologically valid way to understand migration is by looking at it through the eyes of the migrants themselves the authors draw on a wide spectrum of first hand evidence from a multitude of sources including testimonies media artefacts workplace experiences interviews and ethnographic observations The contributors reflect on a wide array of themes linked to the African context such as diasporic mapping of landscapes hybridity heterotopia m tissage cultural mixing and complementation This book presents the African continent not only in its cultural diversity but also to cover the complex and wide trajectories of migrations to from and within Africa

Social and cultural psychoimmunology Imre Lazar, 2024-10-03 Systems theory ecologic anthropology the understanding of humankind and its environment in an organic unit or the interpretation of humankind and its inanimate environment in one unit as a human non human hybrid all help to understand psychosomatics as a part of human ecology The disease is a coded message from fate However the patient is the protagonist of their fate and fate is shaped by the dramatics played out on a socio psychological stage Disease happens in the body s evolutionary structure but this story is locked into the microecology of the inner world and the natural and sociocultural macroecology of existence It is this eco logic that creates the context for signals of socio psychoimmunology When pursuing the discovery of information on disease events the neuroendocrine and immunology signals turn into reporting signals psychoimmunology becomes a multi dimensional semiotic problem the evolutionary background of signals turns into etymology and stress and its consequences become a narrative Life events are in the center of attention of cultural psychoimmunology and offer an area where the social psychophysiology recognitions observed in the sociocultural atmosphere of a given world and life provide strategic information for psychosomatics and narrative medicine Anthropology Conrad Phillip Kottak,2000 Ottoman Medicine Miri Shefer-Mossensohn,2010-07-02 The social history of medicine in the Ottoman Empire and the historic Middle East is told in rich detail for the first time in English Accessible and engaging Ottoman Medicine sheds light on the work and power of medical practitioners in the Ottoman world The enduring significance and fascinating history of Ottoman medicine emerge through a consideration of its medical ethics troubled relationship with religion standards of professionalism bureaucratization and health systems management and the extent of state control Of interest to healthcare providers healers and patients this book helps us better understand and appreciate the medical practices of non Western societies Health Across Borders Konane M. Martínez,2005 Mortal Dilemmas Donald Joralemon,2016-01-31 Anthropologist Donald Joralemon asks whether America is really as many scholars claim a death denying culture that prefers to quarantine the sick in hospitals and the elderly in nursing homes His answer is a reasoned no In his view Americans are merely struggling to find cultural scripts for the exceptional conditions of dying that our social world and medical technologies have thrust upon us The book includes contemporary debates about highly visible cases the definition of death the status of human remains aging and the medicalization of grief demonstrating persuasively that arguments over death and dying are in fact arguments about what it means to be human in modern America Written in the first person for a broad audience by a senior anthropologist this is an authoritative yet accessible textbook for courses on death and dying and American culture Shadows in the Valley Alan C. Swedlund,2010 Explores the impact of changing medical practices on ordinary people in nineteenth century America Case-based Geriatrics: A Global Approach Victor A. Hirth,Darryl Wieland,Maureen Dever-Bumba,2010-12-31 A full color case based guide to the principles and clinical aspects of geriatric care Case Based Geriatrics utilizes a case and evidence based approach to help you understand the key principles and clinical points of geriatric medicine and healthcare Written to reflect the field s growing trend toward interdisciplinary collaboration the book is of value not only to physicians but to the entire health team involved in the care of the elderly This unique text is constructed around case presentations which are used as the primary teaching tool These cases reflect issues and principles of geriatrics that are encountered and practiced worldwide You will learn how cultural characteristics of both patients and providers have added new layers of complications to this already challenging field and how they can be recognized and overcome Each case is directly linked to the learning objectives found in each chapter Review questions appear at the beginning and end of each chapter to test your understanding Case Based Geriatrics is divided into three sections Issues in Aging features foundational chapters covering essential topics such as biology of aging worldwide demographics the geriatric physical exam sensory changes in aging and approaches to laboratory testing and imaging in aging Inter professional Geriatrics provides an overview of multi professional team care and covers important topics such as pre and post operative care discharge planning and transitional care end of life care home care and long term care Geriatric Syndromes and Important Issues covers common disorders such as delirium dementia depression stroke hypertension osteoporosis and more Rethinking Africa's 'globalization' Paul Tiyambe Zeleza,2003 Offering a powerful and probing critique of the myths meanings promises and perils of globalisation post colonialism and other currently popular discourses this book challenges misrepresentations and misappropriations of Africa in academic texts and in the media and reaffirms the importance of progressive nationalism Pan Africanism and internationalism for Africa s reconstruction Meteorology, photography, geology, natural history, anthropology, industry and commerce, archaeology, medical, etc Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1906 Book Review Index ,2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Understanding Dying, Death, and Bereavement Michael R. Leming,George E. Dickinson,2007 Using a social psychological approach this edition remains solidly grounded in theory and research but places greater emphasis on the individual and coping with death and dying These two well known authors and researchers integrate stimulating personal accounts throughout the text and apply concepts to specific examples that deal with cross cultural perspectives and the practical matters of death and dying Meteorology, photography, geology, natural history, anthropology, industry and commerce, medical, etc Royal Geographical Society (Great Britain),1901
