Exploring Affect Exploring Affect:

Exploring Affect Silvan S. Tomkins, 1995-01-27 Silvan Tomkins was one of the most influential theorists on emotion and emotional expression. Over a period of 40 some years until his death in 1991 he developed a set of original important ideas about the nature of affect and its relationship to cognition and personality. Tomkins dealt with fundamental questions in a fresh and provocative way establishing affect as a separate biological system and providing compelling data on discrete affect expressions. Several years before his death Professor Tomkins agreed to bring his papers unpublished and published together into Exploring Affect for Cambridge Studies in Emotion and Social Interaction. He worked with Paul Ekman and Klaus Scherer to develop a structure for the book that would synthesize his theory of emotion. Unfortunately he died before he was able to complete the process. Virginia Demos, who knew Professor Tomkins well, took on the enormous task of compiling the papers and writing connective material for the book. This volume of Tomkins selected writings on affect brings together his works of four decades and makes them available at a more receptive time in the field. It is a treasure trove of provocative insightful and relevant ideas.

Exploring Affect Silvan Solomon Tomkins, E. Virginia Demos, 1995-01-01 A comprehensive introduction to the work of Silvan Tomkins, a leading theorist of human emotion and motivation.

Affect Theory, Shame, and Christian Formation Stephanie N. Arel, 2016-11-08 This book addresses the eclipse of shame in Christian theology by showing how shame emerges in Christian texts and practice in ways that can be neither assimilated into a discourse of guilt nor dissociated from embodiment. Stephanie N. Arel argues that the traditional focus on guilt obscures shame by perpetuating the image of the lonely sinner in guilt. Drawing on recent studies in affect and attachment theories to frame the theological analysis, the text examines the theological anthropological writings of Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr, the interpretation of empathy by Edith Stein, and moments of touch in Christian praxis. Bringing the affective dynamics of shame to the forefront enables theologians and religious leaders to identify where shame emerges in language and human behavior. The text expands work in trauma theory, providing a multi-layered theological lens for engaging shame and accompanying suffering.

The Palgrave Handbook of Affect Studies and Textual Criticism Donald R. Wehrs, Thomas Blake, 2017-12-01 This volume provides a comprehensive account of how scholarship on affect and scholarship on texts have come to inform one another over the past few decades. The result has been that explorations of how texts address, elicit, shape, and dramatize affect have become central to contemporary work in literary film and art criticism as well as in critical theory, rhetoric, performance studies, and aesthetics. Guiding readers to the variety of topics, themes, interdisciplinary dialogues, and sub-disciplinary specialties that the study of interplay between affect and texts has either inaugurated or revitalized, the handbook showcases and engages the diversity of scholarly topics, approaches, and projects that thinking of affect in relation to texts and related media opens up or enables. These include but are not limited to investigations of what attention to affect brings to established methods of studying texts in terms of period, genre, cultural contexts rhetoric and individual authorship Michael Ondaatje: Haptic Aesthetics and Micropolitical Writing Milena Marinkova, 2011-07-14 This study of selected literary and cinematic works by Michael Ondaatje investigates the political potential of the Canadian author's aesthetics Contributing to current debates about affect and representation ideology critique and the artwork trauma and testimony this book uses the concept of the haptic to demonstrate how Ondaatje's multisensory fluid and historically inflected writing can forge an enabling relationship between audience author and text This is where Ondaatje's micropolitics often misconstrued as ideologically suspect aestheticism emerges a praxis that intimates how one can write and read politically with a difference Religious Affects Donovan O. Schaefer, 2015-11-13 In Religious Affects Donovan O. Schaefer challenges the notion that religion is inextricably linked to language and belief proposing instead that it is primarily driven by affects Drawing on affect theory evolutionary biology and poststructuralist theory Schaefer builds on the recent materialist shift in religious studies to relocate religious practices in the affective realm an insight that helps us better understand how religion is lived in conjunction with systems of power To demonstrate religion's animality and how it works affectively Schaefer turns to a series of case studies including the documentary Jesus Camp and contemporary American Islamophobia Placing affect theory in conversation with post-Darwinian evolutionary theory Schaefer explores the extent to which nonhuman animals have the capacity to practice religion linking human forms of religion and power through a new analysis of the chimpanzee waterfall dance as observed by Jane Goodall In this compelling case for the use of affect theory in religious studies Schaefer provides a new model for mapping relations between religion politics species globalization secularism race and ethics Affect Theory, Genre, and the Example of Tragedy Duncan A. Lucas, 2018-09-08 Affect Theory Genre and the Example of Tragedy employs Silvan Tomkins' Affect Script theory of human psychology to explore the largely unacknowledged emotions of disgust and shame in tragedy The book begins with an overview of Tomkins' relationship to both traditional psychoanalysis and theories of human motivation and emotion before considering tragedy via case studies of Oedipus Hamlet and Death of a Salesman Aligning Affect Script theory with literary genre studies this text explores what motivates fictional characters within the closed conditions of their imagined worlds and how we as an audience relate to and understand fictional characters as motivated humans Transfential Poetics, from Poe to Warhol Adam Frank, 2014-12-15 Transfential Poetics presents a method for bringing theories of affect to the study of poetics Informed by the thinking of Silvan Tomkins Melanie Klein and Wilfred Bion it offers new interpretations of the poetics of four major American artists Edgar Allan Poe Henry James Gertrude Stein and Andy Warhol The author emphasizes the close reflexive attention each of these artists pays to the transfer of feeling between text and reader or composition and audience their transfential poetics The book's historical route from Poe to Warhol culminates in television a technology and cultural form that makes affect distinctly available to perception The peculiar theatricality of these four artists Frank argues can best be understood as a reciprocal framing relation between the bodily means of communicating affect by face and voice and technologies of graphic reproduction Dire Emotions and Lethal Behaviours Charles Stewart, 2007-09-12 Dire Emotions and Lethal Behaviours explores the primary motivational system in human beings Based on the work of C G Jung James Hillman Louis Stewart and Silvan Tomkins Charles Stewart investigates the psychology of the innate affects with a focus towards the emotional motivation of adolescents and young adults who have killed others themselves or both It is suggested that social isolation dissociation of the personality unbearable emotions and possession by affects are necessary conditions for both homicide and suicide Stewart argues that these conditions result from deep seated emotional psychopathology which involves both the positive affects of the life instinct Interest and Joy and the crisis affects Fear Anguish Anger and Shame Contempt Illustrated throughout with case studies of individuals who have committed homicide suicide or both Dire Emotions and Lethal Behaviours aims to discover the emotional motivations for such behaviours so that through education and psychological treatment such tragic outcomes can be prevented This book will be of interest to professionals and students in the fields of mental health and criminal justice Exploring the Relationship Between Sex, Sex Roles, Acculturation, and Attitudes Toward Mental Illness Among Puerto Rican Adults Diana Morrobel, 1997
