The Letters of David (Classic Reprint) Martha E. Watts,2015-07-02 Excerpt from The Letters of David An Expression of Gratitude to a firm but kind Doctor Shore Mountain May 30 Dear old Doc You gave me my choice between Heaven and this Its taken me a week to forgive you them harsh words but now I ask your forgiveness for all the back talk I hurled at your shining head Heaven or this they must be synonymous I didn t know before that the world had so much blue water and golden sand and waving trees and all those things the poets must have seen somewhere I strolled up to the hotel today and took a seat on the veranda I didn t notice by whom I was sitting but I soon found out A little voice at my elbow piped up Been here long Over a week I replied mechanically and turned to see a silver haired lady in a vivid green dress bending over some embroidery Pretty place she remarked giving me a fidgety glance out of one eye Its heaven I replied Heaven is where God is she answered I beg your pardon for misplacing Him I rejoined But she hadnt convinced me I quitted the porch and drifted down to the shore and lay there stretched out full length on the soft warm sand I saw the sun dip into the sea and gild the sky a reddish gold streaked with black slender clouds and the lingering light make a shimmering pathway across the waters from the skyline to my feet As the sky grew dim and the light faded I felt the tap of bad Little Despair at my lungs better say About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
