The Incredible Teenage Brain Bettina Hohnen, Jane Gilmour, Tara Murphy, 2019-10-21 This book is a must read for anyone parenting teaching or supporting teens who wants to empower them to reach their potential Written by a team of clinical psychologists it leads you through tried and tested strategies to build strong relationships and improve communication with young people as they develop learn and grow In the book we learn that the teenage brain is unique which gives us an incredible opportunity for change and development but it is also a time when young people are particularly sensitive and potentially vulnerable It guides you through ways to communicate effectively with teens without negatively affecting their self esteem There are plenty of tips about what to say what not say and the best mindset to use with teens day to day The authors draw from the latest research in neuroscience and psychology years of clinical expertise and first hand parenting experience It's relatable like your best friend's advice and informed by scientific evidence easy to read hard to put down

Education Pack "all different - all equal" 2021 Rui Gomes, Anca-Ruxandra Pandeia, Patricia Brander, Laure de Witte, Gavan Titley, 2021-11-22 It is easy to say I have no prejudices I'm not racist so it has nothing to do with me I didn't invite those refugees It is hard to say I may not be to blame for what happened in the past but I want to take responsibility for making sure it doesn't continue in the future The Education Pack all different all equal was originally produced in 1995 as an educational resource for the European youth campaign against racism antisemitism xenophobia and intolerance Soon after its publication it became a reference work for those involved in intercultural education and training with young people across Europe and beyond Translated into many languages it remains today one of the most successful and most sought after publications of the Council of Europe The usefulness of the pack stems from the variety and creativity of the methodologies proposed More than twenty years after the all different all equal campaign the role plays simulation exercises case studies and cooperative group work that it proposes remain an inspiration to many youth workers trainers teachers and other people actively involved in intercultural education European societies continue to suffer from a growth of racist hostility and intolerance towards minorities and foreigners the necessity for intercultural youth work remains undiminished and the relevance of this pack remains unquestionable Little bit has been changed in this new edition of the pack apart from an updating of references Most changes are visible and usable only in the online version which offers relevant links with other resources for human rights education which continue the legacy of the campaign equality in dignity and rights respect for broader appreciation of diversity
