Reaction Formations: Dialogism, Ideology, and Capitalist Culture Jonathan Hall,2019-08-05 Bakhtin and Voloshinov argued that dialogue is the intersubjective basis of consciousness and of the creativity which makes historical changes in consciousness possible The multiple dialogical relationships give every subject who has developed through internalising them the potential to distance him or herself from them Consciousness is therefore an unfinalised process always open to a possible future which would not merely reiterate the past But this book explores its corollary The relative openness is a field of conflict where rival discourses struggle for hegemony by subordinating or eliminating their rivals That is how the unconscious is created out of socio historical conflicts Hegemony is always incomplete because there is always the possibility of a return of its repressed rivals in new combinations

Olszewski,2025-07-16 There s more to Spanish literature than Don Quixote In addition to Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra s immortal classic Spain produced the earliest evidence of works in a Romance dialect debuted the picaresque genre and introduced the Don Juan figure to the world This guide analyzes the merits and shortcomings of nearly 300 English translations of 100 major works of Spanish literature in poetry prose and theater Each entry summarizes the importance of the author and the work discusses elements of the translations such as the source text formats supplementary material and translators methodology and provides commentary that evaluates the fidelity and readability of the translations and the utility of the supplementary material

Postcolonial African Migration to the West Belachew Gebrewold,2024-07-04 Postcolonial African migration to the West is not only a spatial movement in search of material and physical security but also an expression of the mimetic desire for being by imitating the West or whitening oneself against the background of the dehumanizing historical legacies of slavery colonialism and Western dominance It is a flight from oneself from perceived inadequacies To migrate to the West is an expression of the desire for being not through detachment from the fascinating West but rather through adoration and imitation of its lifestyle beauty ideals and soft and hard power and by living in the West The model the West builds ubiquitous anti migrant physical and virtual fences which the imitator tries to overcome The more the model re strengthens these fences the more the imitator tries to scale them The anti migrant fences are the meeting point of the model s perceived superiority admirability and desirability on the one hand and on the other hand the imitator s inferiority complex and inner tension between the paradoxical desire for detachment from the model and its passionate imitation at the same time This book argues that African migration to the West will continue even in the absence of poverty conflicts and climate change because it is also about the mimetic desire for being
