

Can't Judge a Book by Its Cover

You can't judge a book by its cover means you should not make decisions or form opinions based solely on outward appearance without knowing more about someone or something.

"I know your first impression of Jonathan was not good, but don't judge a book by its cover."

From American superheroes like Superman and Spiderman to Japanese manga like Dragon Ball, there is a rich world of graphic storytelling that appeals to a wide range of readers from young children just beginning to read to adults of every age who are captivated by dynamic illustrations and complex characters. Once dismissed as just for children, comic books are now appreciated for their vibrant art and sophisticated storylines. In Comics, Graphic Novels and Manga: The Ultimate Teen Guide Randall Bonser explores the history, evolution, diversification and impact of graphic storytelling. This book looks at the origins of illustrated stories and how they evolved over the decades. A celebration and exploration of the rapidly growing world of comics, this book discusses such topics as the history of graphic storytelling from cave drawings to zombie comics, the impact of American superhero comics on popular culture, diversity in comics, the tools comic book and graphic novel creators use to communicate, easy starting points for readers new to comics. Featuring reviews of more than 90 graphic novels and popular manga series, this book provides recommendations of what teens should consider reading next. The author also provides a short course on how teens can create and distribute their own comics. For those who either want to start reading comics but aren't sure where to start or as a gateway for the comics enthusiast to explore a different graphic novel genre. Comics, Graphic Novels and Manga: The Ultimate Teen Guide provides a fun and fascinating introduction to these worlds Don't Judge a Book by Its Cover Denise Fleck, 2013-05-01 Awarded the Maxwell Medallion and Voted Best Children's Book by the Dog Writers Association of America. Mary Alice and her friends like pretty clothes and hanging with the in crowd but when she requests a puppy for her birthday her parents decide the fluffy one with the pink bow in the pet store window may not be the best choice. Instead Mary Alice ends up at the local Animal Shelter where she not only saves the life of a loving older dog but learns that once you look beyond the plain cover of things you can be treated to the true joys that lie underneath. Looking beyond the cover is truly canine in that dogs do not judge others based on their income, beauty or status. They live in the moment rejoicing in every kindness they are shown.
