Andrew Fitz-Gibbon

Dostoevsky And Kant Dialogues On Ethics Social Philosophy:

Dostoevsky and Kant Evgenia Cherkasova, 2009 In this book Evgenia Cherkasova brings the philosopher Kant and the novelist Dostoevsky together in conversations that probe why duty is central to our moral life She shows that just as Dostoevsky is indebted to Kant so Kant would profit from the deeply philosophical narratives of Dostoevsky which engage the problem of evil and the claims of human community She not only produces a novel reading of Dostoevsky but also guides us to later often neglected Kantian texts This study is written with scholarly care penetrating analysis elegance of style and moral urgency Cherkasova writes with both mind and heart Emily Grosholz Professor of Philosophy The Pennsylvania State University Social Philosophy SP in conjunction with the Center for Ethics Peace and Social Justice SUNY Cortland explores theoretical and applied issues in contemporary social philosophy drawing on a variety of philosophical traditions

Dialogue on Grief and Consolation Terence Lawlor O'Connell, 2009 Have you lost a loved one The loss can be inestimable the grief excruciating What helped you Did someone say something comforting Did someone offer a consolation which you resented Have you ever tried to comfort someone with a terminal illness or one who has lost a loved one Knowing how to help or what to say that is not trite insincere or superficial can be difficult The point of view of a grieving person is quite different from that of those who wish to offer comfort In a multicultural society such as ours anticipating the beliefs of the grieving person can be even more difficult This book explores the perspective of a grieving person It considers the merits and potential harm of alternative comfort strategies As a philosophical analysis of grief it emphasizes an understanding of the beliefs that underlie grief and the usefulness or dangers of emotions Because grief is so complex and sensitive a narrow approach runs the risk of alienating the grieving person The ideas in this book are expressed in a dialogue among three characters Their discussion is broad and fundamental Starting from the familiar consolation She s no longer suffering and the grieving person s resentment toward the expression the three friends articulate the value of life and the evils of death Their discussion enriches their understanding of grief Many consolations offered to mourners are poor arguments Even the better ones do their work best in the context of a greater understanding of grief Postethnophilosophy Sanya
