DOE Explain	Direct Quote and Page Number	Quote Significance/Response
	"For the survivor who chooses to testify, it is clear: his duty is to bear witness for the dead and for the living. He has no right to ignore their grief, for all that he can do is to add to the suffering of their families. To forget would be not only dangerous but offensive; to forget the dead would be akin to killing them a second time" (Eliezer, 24).	Through this quote, Eliezer expressed his stance on indifference. One must be there witness to "killing". I wanted to know it is the duty of the people to stand up for those who lost their lives by reflecting future generations about the awful things that can happen when good people remain indifferent.
