Economics For South African Students Fourth Edition:

Economics for South African Students Philip Mohr, 2004 This title is an introduction to economics in general set against a contemporary South African background The practical examples make this publication extremely accessible

Public Economics for South African Students Philip A. Black, 2003 This title is an up to date approach to South African public economic theory and practice incorporating structural reforms of the tax system The text describes the role of government in shaping the economy and discusses the role it should play Apartheid In Theory And Practice Mats Ove Lundahl, 2019-04-24 This book employs the neoclassical theory of discrimination to explain the apartheid system of South Africa and the changes that discriminatory practice has undergone It deals with the question whether economic sanctions are likely to be efficient weapons for combating racial discrimination Agrekon, 1993 EBOOK: Economics, South African Edition J. van Rensburg, Campbell McConnell, Stanley Brue, 2015-03-16 EBOOK Economics South African Edition

Public Economics Philip A. Black, Estian Calitz, Tjaart J. Steenekamp, 2008 This fourth edition of Public Economics provides a comprehensive yet easy to read introductory text to the study of public economics within a South African and Southern African context The book includes additional self assessment exercises and interesting comments in each chapter which emphasize topical issues It has also been updated to feature the latest in SA economic policy The Economist, 1900 The Economics of Competition George G Djolov, 2014-07-16 A comprehensive examination of the ways competition and innovations level the playing field in the free market The Economics of Competition uses the South African pharmaceutical industry as a case study to cogently challenge accepted economic and regulatory views on competition and monopoly then re-establishes and emphasizes the importance of foundational economic principles The book comprehensively explores the concept that monopoly is self limiting within unrestricted competition as well as the various market features of competition innovation and market power This detailed examination broadens understanding of the economics of competition for both scholars and practitioners Competition is seen as a continuous process in a free market The Economics of Competition thoughtfully explores the competitive process in its two mechanisms the transfer of market share from one rival to another and innovation of a new product new method of production new market opening or new source of supply of raw materials The dynamic nature of the marketplace is thoroughly examined from the author's inside view of the South African pharmaceutical industry This provides a rare opportunity to closely examine an industry considered to be a monopoly while actively applying economic theories of competition and freedom of choice The effects of public policy legislation and pricing regulations are discussed in detail The book has several tables and figures to enhance clarity and is extensively referenced The Economics of Competition discusses monopoly and rivalry in the free market theories of perfect competition innovation as a controlling variable pricing and price differentiation barriers to competition including historical and contemporary legislative barriers horizontal mergers and acquisitions as a key aspect of market power and more The Economics of
