Design and the Vernacular Paul

Memmott,John Ting,Tim O'Rourke,Marcel Vellinga,2023-11-16 Design and the Vernacular explores the intersection between vernacular architecture local cultures and modernity and globalization focussing on the vast and diverse global region of Australasia and Oceania The relevance and role of vernacular architecture in contemporary urban planning and architectural design are examined in the context of rapid political economic technological social and environmental changes including globalization exchanges of people finance material culture and digital technologies Sixteen chapters by architects designers and theorists including Indigenous writers explore key questions about the agency of vernacular architecture in shaping contemporary building and design practice These questions include How have Indigenous building traditions shaped modern building practices What can the study of vernacular architecture contribute to debates about sustainable development And how has vernacular architecture been used to argue for postcolonial modernisation and nation building and what has been the effect on heritage and conservation Such questions provide valuable case studies and lessons for architecture in other global regions and challenge assumptions about vernacular architecture being anachronistic and static instead demonstrating how it can shape contemporary architecture nation building and cultural identities Cultures of Memory in Asia Chieh-Hsiang Wu,2022-07-05 A collection of works by Asian scholars looking at different ways in which relatively recent traumas have been memorialized in their various countries often while the traumas themselves are ongoing or the memories of them contested Memory studies typically focuses on the study of memorialization after traumatic incidents are overcome in Asia however the past and the present remain closely intertwined Between the legacies of the Japanese Empire the respective suppressions by the Kuomintang and the People s Republic of China and the ongoing protests in much of Southeast Asia against oppressive governments and laws memorialization is occurring while the histories are still being contested The contributors to this book are Asian scholars examining the memorializing of events in the countries of Asia including China Taiwan Japan Korea Thailand and the Philippines using local language sources They look at a broad range of media of memorialization encompassing statues cemeteries testimonial literature and film among others An insightful resource for scholars of memory and cultural studies as well as those of twentieth and twenty first century Asian history

Reading the Architecture of the Underprivileged Classes Assoc Prof Nnamdi Elleh,2014-11-28 The expansion of cities in the late C19th and middle part of the C20th in the developing and the emerging economies of the world has one major urban corollary it caused the proliferation of unplanned parts of the cities that are identified by a plethora of terminologies such as bidonville favela ghetto informal settlements and shantytown Often the dwellings in such settlements are described as shacks architecture of necessity and architecture of everyday experience in the modern and the contemporary metropolis This volume argues that the types of structures and settlements built by people who do not have access to architectural services in many cities in the developing parts of the world evolved simultaneously with the types of buildings that are celebrated in architecture textbooks as modernism. It not only shows how architects can learn from traditional or vernacular dwellings in order to create habitations for the people of low income groups in public housing scenarios but also demonstrates how the architecture of the economically underprivileged classes goes beyond culturally inspired tectonic interpretations of vernacular traditions by architects for high profile clients. Moreover, the essays explore how the resourceful dwellings of the underprivileged inhabitants of the great cities in developing parts of the world pioneered certain concepts of modernism and contemporary design practices such as sustainable and deconstructivist design. Using projects from Africa, Asia, South and Central America as well as Austria and the USA, this volume interrogates and brings to the attention of academics, students and practitioners of architecture the deliberate disqualification of the modern architecture produced by the urban poor in different parts of the world.

Remapping the Cold War in Asian Cinemas Sangjoon Lee, Darlene Espena, 2025-10-01. This book is about cinema and the cultural Cold War in Asia set against the larger history of the cultural, political and institutional linkages between the US, Europe and Asia at the height of the Cold War. From the popularity of CIA sponsored espionage films in Hong Kong and South Korea to the enduring Cold War rhetoric of brotherly relations, in contemporary Sino-Indian co-production cinema has always been a focal point of the cultural Cold War in Asia. Historically, both the United States and the Soviet Union viewed cinema as a powerful weapon in the battle to win hearts and minds not just in Europe but also in Asia. The Cold War in Asia was, properly speaking, a hot war with proxy military confrontations between the United States on one side and the Soviet Union and China on the other. Amid this political and military turbulence, cataclysmic shifts occurred in the culture and history of Asian cinemas as well as in the latitude of US cultural diplomacy in Asia. The collection of essays in this volume sheds light on the often forgotten history of the cultural Cold War in Asia. Taken together, the volume's fifteen chapters examine film cultures and industries in Asia to showcase the magnitude and depth of the Cold War's impact on Asian cinemas, societies and politics. By shifting the lens to Asia, the contributors to this volume re-examine the dominant narratives about the global Cold War and highlight the complex and unique ways in which Asian societies negotiated, contested and adapted to the politics and cultural manifestations of the Cold War.

Traditional Dwellings and Settlements Review, 2005

Homelandings Rahul K. Gairola, 2016-09-21. Homelandings is a critical exploration of the ways that postcolonial diasporas challenge exclusive formulations of home and homeland based on racist and heteronormative assumptions. It critically engages with Foucault's notions of biopolitics and governmentality as a conjoined technology of governance in the era of neoliberal capitalism ushered into the global economy from the late 1970s. Drawing on texts produced by diasporic people in the UK and USA whose work resists and re-appropriates exclusive home sites produced by trends of Anglo-American neoliberalism, it exposes entrenched discourses of exclusion rooted in race, class and sexuality. In doing so, it offers an urgent intervention for students and scholars of cultural studies postcolonial studies Anglophone literature comparative literature Race and Ethnicity studies and Queer studies

 National Artist for Literature Southeast Asia's Modern Architecture Jiat-Hwee Chang, Imran bin Tajudeen, 2019 What is the modern in Southeast Asia's architecture and how do we approach its study critically This pathbreaking multidisciplinary volume is the first critical survey of Southeast Asia's modern architecture It looks at the challenges of studying this complex history through the conceptual frameworks of translation epistemology and power Challenging Eurocentric ideas and architectural nomenclature the authors examine the development of modern architecture in Indonesia Malaysia Myanmar the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam with a focus on selective translation and strategic appropriation of imported ideas and practices by local architects and builders The book transforms our understandings of the region's modern architecture by moving beyond a consideration of architecture as an aesthetic artifact and instead examining its entanglement with different dynamics of power Kontra-gahum, 2006 Imagining Modernity Anoma Pieris, Social Scientists Association of Sri Lanka, 2007 This book is a detailed study of the architecture of Valentine Gunasekara 1931-2017 It provides an innovative lens to understand the formation of a Ceylonese middle class which was inspired by the post independence desire for modernity Their experiments values and dynamic social history are the framework for this research Although neglected by his peers and marginalized by the prevalent discourse on vernacular regionalism Gunasekara's work poses important questions regarding the utopian ideals of the modernist project and its successes and its failures in Asia More significantly his work reveals the European and American influences that shaped the first generation of Ceylonese architects and their efforts at adapting new materials and technologies to a very different climate and culture This book documents a wide range of Gunasekara's projects including residential religious and commercial buildings arguing that they represented a nascent cosmopolitanism from below that proved to be quite antithetical to regionalist trends in architecture This e-book is a re-publication of an earlier edition published by Stamford
