Sci Fi Dystopia Global Trend:

Science Fiction, Imperialism and the Third World Ericka Hoagland, Reema Sarwal, 2014-01-10 Though science fiction is often thought of as a Western phenomenon the genre has long had a foothold in countries as diverse as India and Mexico These fourteen critical essays examine both the role of science fiction in the third world and the role of the third world in science fiction Topics covered include science fiction in Bengal the genre's portrayal of Native Americans Mexican cyberpunk fiction and the undercurrents of colonialism and Empire in traditional science fiction The intersections of science fiction theory and postcolonial theory are explored as well as science fiction's contesting of imperialism and how the third world uses the genre to recreate itself Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb) ,2001 Science Fiction and Posthumanism in the Anthropocene

Jonathan Hay, 2024-12-26 With science fiction stories imagining futures and worlds vastly different from our own and posthuman philosophies radically reconceptualising our species place within our own world this book is a deep dive into the similarities between science fiction studies and critical posthumanism and how they can be read together Both fields fantasise about future technologies envisage alienness through conversation with everyday life and both anticipate the Anthropocene as a dire source of rupture from the present Drawing inspiration from these and other consonances this book establishes a common theoretical ground between the two fields upon which the two currents of future oriented thought can meet and begin to share a common language An investigation that draws critical currency from the everyday condition of our species in relation to technology and our perilous situation in the Anthropocene the book observes posthumanism not just as a theoretical framework that may be applied to science fictional ideas but also as an integral part of how it is that science fiction is generated Featuring case studies of the work of prominent authors Isaac Asimov Ursula K Le Guin and Kim Stanley Robinson alongside the BBC television series Doctor Who and the cult videogame Outer Wilds Science Fiction and Posthumanism in the Anthropocene formulates a new critical paradigm which recognises the value of such works to posthumanist thought Addressing those with an interest in either academic discipline it demonstrates that urgent discourses around our shared future are more imperative now than ever before

Using Open Data to Detect Organized Crime

Threats Henrik Legind Larsen, José María Blanco, Raquel Pastor Pastor, Ronald R. Yager, 2017-04-07 This work provides an innovative look at the use of open data for extracting information to detect and prevent crime and also explores the link between terrorism and organized crime In counter terrorism and other forms of crime prevention foresight about potential threats is vitally important and this information is increasingly available via electronic data sources such as social media communications However the amount and quality of these sources is varied and researchers and law enforcement need guidance about when and how to extract useful information from them The emergence of these crime threats such as communication between organized crime networks and radicalization towards terrorism is driven by a combination of political economic social technological legal and environmental factors The contributions to this volume represent a major step by researchers to systematically collect filter interpret and use the information available For the purposes of this book the only data sources used are publicly available sources which can be accessed legally and ethically This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice particularly in police science organized crime counter terrorism and crime science It will also be of interest to those in related fields such as applications of computer science and data mining public policy and business intelligence

Worlds Ending. Ending Worlds

Jenny Stümer, Michael Dunn, 2023-12-04 The notion of apocalypse is an age old concept which has gained renewed interest in popular and scholarly discourse The book highlights the versatile explications of apocalypse today demonstrating that apocalyptic transformations the various encounters with anthropogenic climate change nuclear violence polarized politics colonial assault and capitalist extractivism navigate a range of interdisciplinary views on the present moment Moving from old worlds to new worlds from world ending experiences to apocalyptic imaginaries and finally from authoritarianism to activism and advocacy the contributions begin to map the emerging field of Apocalyptic and Post Apocalyptic Studies Foregrounding the myriad ways in which collective imaginations of apocalypse underpin ethical political and sometimes individual experience the authors provide key points of reference for understanding old and new predicaments that are transforming our many worlds Transformative Change and Global Order Doris A. Fuchs, Friedrich V. Kratochwil, 2002

The world at the beginning of the 21st century is fundamentally different from what it was only 50 years ago or so it seems In the political realm scholars identify deep changes in organization What are the new institutions and qualities of political order Debates on this question have focused on two concepts in particular globalization and global governance Using these concepts as entrance points therefore the contributors to this volume explore theory and practice of political organization in a transformed transforming world with the aim of shaping the post globalization discussion The ABC-Clio World History Companion to Utopian Movements Daniel Webster Hollis, 1998-09 The ABC CLIO World History Companion to Utopian Movements is a unique reference work devoted to actual and theoretical utopian movements Detailed entries examine major utopian movements significant utopian thinkers and literary works and various sects settlements and communes The more than 100 A to Z entries include Diggers Ecotopia Fairhope Colony Feminist Utopias Futurism Huguenot Utopias Kibbutzim Lunar Utopias Millennialism Native American Utopias New Age Cults Oneida Community Ranters Transcendentalism and Welfare State Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative, 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Caesar, 2007
The new Italian narrative TM that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori They are followed by essays on two of Italy TM s best known contemporary writers Marina Spunta TM s essay explores the representation of space place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O TM Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the oeYoung Cannibals and their often unsettling non literary language and orientation towards cinema pop music and slang The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity memory mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli Capriolo Avoledo and Pispisa This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres categories trends rather than author based analyses It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well known writers like Consolo Celati and Vassalli with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London
