Barbara J. Falk

Fall Of The New Class A History Of Communisms Self Destruction:

Fall of the New Class Milovan Djilas, 1998 He was a true believer in communism who became disillusioned with the totalitarianism and corruption of the Communist regimes in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe A wartime partisan leader in Yugoslavia and later the number three man in the politburo he broke with Marshal Tito in 1954 and spent most of the next decade in prison where he began to write about the inner workings of the Communist system Here Milovan Djilas who died in 1995 discusses why communism failed in Europe what its failure means for the future of the continent and how he transformed himself from ideologue into humanist Djilas s publication in 1957 of The New Class which was translated into sixty languages caused a worldwide sensation with its description of the bureaucratization of the movement of the special privileges accorded its leaders and cadres and of its reliance on secret police and repression His new book reemphasizes and enlarges on those themes giving the reader intimate portraits of Tito and his colleagues describing the wartime struggle against the Nazis and rival Yugoslav factions and showing why Mikhail Gorbachev failed in his efforts to reform the Soviet system Controversial and courageous to the end Milovan Djilas sharply criticized Serbia s war on Croatia and once again is the target of vilification in his native land Fall of the New Class is the final testament of one of the most remarkable thinkers of the century

Class Formation, Civil Society and the State Michael Burrage, 2008-01-17 Rather than a ranking system based on occupational prestige this book explains social stratification through political events and decisions Using analyses of Russia France the United States and England Burrage claims that class stems from the habitual relationship between state and civil society and remarkably is undermined by free markets

A Reader's Guide to Serbia Nancy L. Lexon, 1999

Political Will and Personal Belief Paul Hollander, 1999-01-01 The unexpected collapse of the Soviet Union in 1991 signaled the demise of a political and economic system that was widely perceived as durable the preeminent rival to that of the United States Less conspicuous than the momentous political transformations were the altered beliefs aspirations and illusions of the individuals who had maintained and led that system In this original interpretation the eminent sociologist Paul Hollander focuses on the human aspects of the failure of Soviet communism He examines how members of the Soviet political elite leaders in communist Czechoslovakia and Hungary high ranking officials in agencies of control and coercion and distinguished defectors and exiles experienced the erosion of ideals that undermined the political system they had once believed in Hollander analyzes an array of autobiographical and biographical writings journalistic accounts and scholarly interpretations of the unraveling of Soviet communism The Soviet Union fell apart not merely because of severe economic shortcomings Hollander argues but because of the double impact of the conflict between official ideals and practical realities and an eroding sense of legitimacy in the highest echelons In his conclusion the author considers how Marxist theory both shaped and undermined the system

Culture and Civilization Irving Horowitz, 2018-02-06 Volume three of Culture Tony Leon Liberal Democracy in Africa Yoaz Hendel Terrorism and Piracy Norman Manea and Paul Hollander Twenty Years After the Fall of the Berlin Wall Aleksander Kwasniewski World Views of the European Union Gregg Rickman The Nazi Religion and the Holocaust and Walter Laqueur Europe's Road to the Mosque This volume features special essays on Jean Francois Revel's Uncommon Insight John Maynard Keynes Revisited Stefan Zweig Master Builder of the Spirit and Inside Shakespeare's Hamlet As with the previous volumes the writings are brilliantly realized in form with serious content to match Threading a needle between abstracted empiricism that dominates present science policy and speculative metaphysics that offers little else than a great vision of the world this volume of Culture Civilization on Globalism charts a space for which there is a felt need by large publics responded to by serious social science specialists capable of addressing such interests in historically meaningful contexts

The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar, 2014-05-08 In The Postcolonial Orient Vasant Kaiwar presents a far reaching analysis of the political economic and ideological cross currents that have shaped and informed postcolonial studies preceding and following the 1989 moment of world history The valences of the post in postcolonialism are unfolded via some key historical political postcolonial texts showing inter alia that they are replete with elements of Romantic Orientalism and the Oriental Renaissance Kaiwar mobilises a critical body of classical and contemporary Marxism to demonstrate that far richer understandings of Europe not to mention colonialism modernity and difference are possible than with a postcolonialism captive to phenomenological existentialism and post structuralism concluding that a narrative so enriched is indispensable for a transformative non Eurocentric internationalism

Sabrina P. Ramet, 2023-03-23 The communists of East Central Europe came to power promising to bring about genuine equality paying special attention to achieving gender equality to build up industry and create prosperous societies and to use music art and literature to promote socialist ideals Instead they never succeeded in filling more than a third of their legislatures with women and were unable to make significant headway against entrenched patriarchal views they considered it necessary with the sole exception of Albania to rely heavily on credits to build up their economies eventually driving them into bankruptcy and the effort to instrumentalize the arts ran aground in most of the region already by 1956 and in Yugoslavia by 1949 Communism was all about planning control and politicization Except for Yugoslavia after 1949 the communists sought to plan and control not only politics and the economy but also the media and information religious organizations culture and the promotion of women which they understood in the first place as involving putting women to work Inspired by the groundbreaking work of Robert K Merton on functionalist theory this book shows how communist policies were repeatedly undermined by unintended consequences and outright dysfunctions Antun Sa'adeh Adel
