Teaching the Struggling Reader Barbara R. Schirmer, 2010 An innovative resource for literacy teachers Teaching the Struggling Reader takes a novel approach to instruction the reading program is based on the needs of the struggling reader rather than the other way around Most teachers plan their reading lesson and then work in the needs of a struggling reader This book is for teachers looking for a more contemporary and inclusive way to teach reading Starting with assessment the author shows you how to group readers by ability and need rather than by risk factors Finally you will save planning time by learning how to incorporate strategies that you already know into developing your lesson rather than changing your style to accommodate the requirements of a particular reading program

An Introduction to Intergenerational Literacy Alden Lancaster, 1992

Teaching Language and Literacy James F. Christie, Billie Enz, Carol Vukelich, 2003 The unique focus of this text integrates constructivist learning diversity and instruction based assessment and helps translate principles into practice The central underlying thesis of Teaching Language and Literacy is that children are at the center of all good language and literacy teaching The text with broad coverage of preschool through the elementary grades advocates an appreciation of student diversity and an implementation of assessment strategies relating to specific learning teaching events The text describes how children construct their own knowledge about oral and written language by engaging in integrated meaningful and functional activities with other people in a variety of contexts It then goes one step further describing how teachers can design authentic classroom reasons for using oral and written language In keeping with the text s theme illustrations of how teachers can work effectively with diverse learners appear throughout the text In addition instructionally linked assessment is another important topic central to the text Current Index to Journals in Education ,2000-10 Yearbook of the National Reading Conference National Reading Conference (U.S.),2007 Journal of Nursery Education ,1988 Transitions Society for Developmental Education,1990 Children's Literacy Development Patricia Ann Edwards,2004 Written in an eloquent and practical style renown author and recognized national authority on family literacy Patricia Edwards has carefully selected skills strategies and examples of family involvement that will empower educators to successfully implement family involvement initiatives A timely publication on today s political climate with federal monies going into family literacy Edwards has deliberately and painstakingly chosen research based school tested ideas as the focus of this book ERIC/CLL News Bulletin ,1990
