Family Therapy Review Contrasting Contemporary Models:

Family Therapy Review Anne Hearon Rambo, AnnaLynn Schooley, 2013 Designed for MFT students or those just beginning in the field this text presents a case study and provides examples of how different models of marriage and family therapy such as brief therapies integrative models and strategic therapies handle the case An Introduction to Marriage and Family Therapy Joseph L. Wetchler, Lorna L. Hecker, 2014-08-27 Now in its second edition this text introduces readers to the rich history and practice of Marriage and Family Therapy with 32 professionals from across the US presenting their knowledge in their areas of expertise This blend of approaches and styles gives this text a unique voice and makes it a comprehensive resource for graduate students taking their first course in Marriage and Family Therapy The book is divided into three sections Part 1 focuses on the components on which 21st century family therapy is based and summarizes the most recent changes made to not only therapeutic interventions but to the very concept of family Part 2 presents an overview of the 7 major theoretical models of the field structural strategic Milan social constructionist experiential transgenerational and cognitive behavioral family therapy Each chapter in this section Focuses on the founder of the theory its theoretical tenants and its key techniques Shows how the model focuses on diversity Presents the research that supports the approach Part 3 addresses specific treatment areas that are common to marriage and family therapists such as sex therapy pre marital therapy research and ethics and legal issues As an introduction to the field of Marriage and Family Therapy this volume stands above the rest Not only will readers gain an understanding of the rich history of the field and its techniques but they will also see a complete picture of the context in which families are embedded such as gender culture spirituality and sexual orientation This knowledge is the key to understanding what differentiates Marriage and Family Therapy from individual psychotherapy Glossaries case studies tables figures and appendices appear generously throughout the text to present this information and give students a thorough overview to prepare them for their professional lives

Introduction to Family Counseling Judy Esposito, Abbi Hattem, 2015-12-01 Introduction to Family Counseling A Case Study Approach presents basic knowledge about family counseling and applies various theoretical models to a case example looking at one nuclear family along with its extended family members that readers follow throughout the text Judy Esposito and Abbi Hattem s multi generational family is constructed from their experiences as professors and family therapists to exemplify the concepts and theories of family counseling Beyond the theories of family counseling students learn about the family life cycle and various tools for assessing families as well as the history of family counseling Ethical issues relevant to family counseling are also included along with transcripts from hypothetical family counseling sessions throughout the book In addition the book focuses on working with diverse families and takes special care to emphasize multicultural issues
