Faith Ideology And Fear Muslim Identities Within And Beyond Prisons:

Faith, Ideology and Fear Gabriele Marranci, 2009-12-24 Unique and soundly researched this book examines the delicate relationship between the experience of prison among Muslims and the formation of religious identity Muslim Identity Formation in Religiously Diverse Societies Derya Iner, Salih Yucel, 2015-10-28 This book centres on the key concept of diversity and relates it to the identity formation of Muslims Muslim identity differs specifically within certain theological social political and regional circumstances and discourses Considering the diversity of societies and the numerous factors contributing to the shaping of Muslim identity this book brings together examples from different parts of the world including Western societies and each chapter focuses on separate determinants of individual communal political institutional civic and national Muslim identities offering a blueprint for identity studies A particular strength of the book is its detailed investigation of the complexity of identity formation and the heterogeneity of the Muslim experience In addition to including a variety of themes and cases from different parts of the world diverse methodologies including quantitative and qualitative research methods further enrich the book The contributors academic backgrounds and organic relationships with their communities enable them to develop their arguments with insight Furthermore by giving voice to academics from different nationalities this book reflects neither a predominantly Western nor a distinctly Eastern approach but instead gives a balanced view from critical academia globally Muslim Societies and the Challenge of Secularization: An Interdisciplinary Approach Gabriele Marranci, 2010-09-08 Scholars from various disciplines worked together to present the first interdisciplinary book to address the issue of Islam secularism and globalization The book has a clear structure which represents its interdisciplinary approach the first section addresses the philosophical and historical discussion about Islam and secularism the second section discusses the topic from an ethnographical and social anthropological viewpoint and the final section addresses Islam secularism and globalization from a political viewpoint This unique collection not only offers innovative research and new material it also provides empirical examples and theoretical debates and could therefore also be used as a textbook for courses on Islam globalization anthropology politics sociology and law Understanding Muslim Identity G. Marranci, 2009-01-15 In this timely book Marranci critically surveys the available theories on Islamic fundamentalism and extremism Rejecting essentialism and cultural reductionism the book suggests that identity and emotion play an essential role in the phenomenon that has been called fundamentalism Religious Change and Indigenous Peoples Helena Onnudottir, Adam Possamai, 2016-04-08 Exploring religious and spiritual changes which have been taking place among Indigenous populations in Australia and New Zealand this book focuses on important changes in religious affiliation in census data over the last 15 years Drawing on both local social and political debates while contextualising the discussion in wider global debates about changing religious identities especially the growth of Islam the authors present a critical analysis of the persistent images and discourses on Aboriginal religions and spirituality This book takes a comparative approach to other Indigenous and minority groups to explore contemporary changes in religious affiliation which have raised questions about resistance to modernity challenges to the nation state and or rejection of Christianity or Islam Helena Onnudottir Adam Possamai and Bryan Turner offer a critical analysis to on going public political and sociological debates about religious conversion especially to Islam and changing religious affiliations including an increase in the number of people who claim no religion among Indigenous populations This book also offers a major contribution to the growing debate about conversion to Islam among Australian Aborigines Maoris and Pacific peoples Constitutional Democracy and Islam Francesco Alicino, 2023-04-07 This book outlines the legal status of Muslims in Italy In particular it highlights that when it comes to Islam the Italian legal system exacerbates the dilemma of contemporary constitutional democracies increasingly caught between the principle of equality and the right to have rights which implies the respect of diversity It provides readers with a deep understanding of how domestic and external socio political factors may muddle the interpretation of Italy s constitutional provisions starting with those relating to state secularism and religious freedom It is argued that today as never before these provisions are torn between the principle of equality and the right to be different This situation has been exacerbated by incessant states of emergency from immigration to religion inspired terrorism in light of which the presence of Islam in the peninsula has been highly politicized Italy s experience on the legal status of Muslims provides an interesting case study and as such a valuable source of empirical information for a functioning and pluralistic constitutional democracy especially when dealing with conditions of fear and insecurity The book will be of interest to researchers academics and policy makers working in the areas of law and religion constitutional law comparative law and human rights Religion and Prison: An Overview of Contemporary Europe Julia Martínez-Ariño, Anne-Laure Zwilling, 2020-07-07 This volume offers a European overview of the management of religious diversity in prisons and provides readers with rich empirical material and a comparative perspective The chapters combine both legal and sociological approaches Coverage for each country includes historical background current penitentiary organization and recent changes or trends In their exploration of legal aspects the contributors look at such factors as the status of prison chaplains and regulations concerning religious practice and religious freedom These include meals prayers and visits The sociological analysis examines religious discrimination in prison church prison relations conversion and proselytism and more The European coverage includes countries for which such information is seldom available The book offers readers a better understanding of governance of religion in prisons This text appeals to students researchers and professionals in the field Totality, Charisma, Authority Mihai Murariu, 2016-10-24 This interdisciplinary endeavour portrays the central features of militant movements which hold totality as an important part of their doctrinal core Revisiting the importance of modernity utopianism eschatology charisma psychology and the history of ideas Mihai Murariu pursues a reconstruction of the historical requirements for the emergence of such movements Making a central use of the concept of totalitarianism the work establishes a conceptual bridge from antiquity to the contemporary period

whilst also arguing for the suitability of the term in comparison to totalitarianism or political religion The author also proposes a distinct taxonomy for structural elements variants and development phases which may be encountered in totalist movements

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Studying Islam in Practice Gabriele Marranci,2013-12-17 This book presents Islam as a lived religion through observation and discussion of how Muslims from a variety of countries traditions and views practice their religion It conveys the experiences of researchers from different disciplinary backgrounds and demonstrates the dynamic and heterogeneous world of Islam The fascinating case studies range from Turkey Egypt Morocco and Lebanon to the UK USA Australia and Indonesia and cover topics such as music art education law gender and sexuality Together they will help students understand how research into religious practice is carried out and what issues and challenges arise

The Middle East, Abstracts and Index ,2002 Stigmatized! from 9/11 to Trump and Beyond Reza Mansoor,2016-05-04 This book is written to give the reader a perspective into the challenging times that immediately followed the terror attacks of 9 11 from an American Muslim perspective As challenges arose it was important to address the misinformation that seemed to be growing in the vacuum that was created in the absence of our input I was the founding President of an organization the Muslim Coalition of Connecticut MCCT that grew out of the ashes of the tragedy of 9 11 that was aimed at countering the fear through education We were determined to live our faith through service projects that reflected our values and we invited our neighbors from other faith communities to join us in these efforts Together with them we served in soup kitchens and shelters built habitat houses walked against hunger and participated in the National Day of service by collecting towels for the homeless Through MCCT we also formed a speaker s bureau to proactively define who we are in the face of the increasing fear of us We reached out to places of worship and other institution and organizations offering our resources in education This has become a popular service with our speakers being invited to various places of worship including synagogues and churches local hospitals and various branches of government including to the judiciary as well as to the law enforcement community Our efforts were rewarded by the Supreme Court in the state of Connecticut that gave the Muslim Coalition of Connecticut the Law Day Award for 2013 in recognition of our outreach and education It was the culmination of years of hard work at outreach As we reached out we were encountering a loud voice feeding on the ignorance of our neighbors of us They caused a vicious cycle of ignorance leading to fear and eventually hate from some very insecure people whose voices were magnified as they were interviewed by some talk radio show hosts and others in media Into this mix came some opportunistic politicians who all combined to make this a very challenging time for us Our youth were particularly being affected by this rhetoric and while we did everything to try to impart to them a positive American Muslim identity there was a louder voice which was amplified by social media that made them feel isolated and alienated There was now in the picture a group that fed on this fear and division by welcoming them to a false utopia in the Middle East ISIS We had to work even harder at making our youth feel secure It is into this environment that this book invites us to look to our role models in faith from Moses to Jesus to Muhammad God's peace be upon them all and assess what our role should be in this time. It is to a very insecure world that these role models came and created legendary change by incorporating wisdom and love. It is not easy to practice love thy neighbor even if that is a refugee from a far away land but that is our religious calling which is no different to our national calling which is still emblazoned on the statue of liberty. Our nation was founded by very wise people and as Muslims we have faith that our Constitution will ultimately protect us from xenophobes carrying out their hate. Our nation was founded to prevent the religious extremism. This book is aimed not just at educating but at living life with the wisdom of education. I invite you to join me in our quest to make our nation a little more welcoming, a little more loving and a little more whole. Each of our efforts I am convinced will overcome every fear, obstacle and trial before us. It is each of us, the people that hold the keys to this nation's greatness. Let us go out and unlock that golden door about which is spoken of on the symbol of our nation, the statue of liberty.

Muslims in Prison James A. Beckford, Danièle Joly, Farhad Khosrokhavar, 2006-03-17. The growth of Islam in Europe is reflected in the increasing numbers of Muslims in British and French prisons but authorities have responded differently to the challenges presented by Muslim prisoners in each country. The findings of three years of intensive research in a variety of prisons show that British prisons facilitate and control the practice of Islam whereas French prisons discourage it and thereby sow the seeds of extremism. The policy implications of these ironic findings are examined in detail.
