Falling Into The Lesbi World Desire And Difference In Indonesia:

Falling Into the Lesbi World Evelyn Blackwood, 2011 Falling into the Lesbi World offers a compelling view of sexual and gender difference through the everyday lives of tombois and their girlfriends femmes in the city of Padang West Sumatra Tombois are masculine females who identify as men and desire women their girlfriends view themselves as normal women who desire men Through rich in depth and provocative stories author Evelyn Blackwood shows how these same sex Indonesian couples negotiate transgressive identities and desires and how their experiences speak to the struggles and desires of sexual and gender minorities everywhere

A Political Biography of the Indonesian Lesbian, Bisexual and Trans Movement Saskia Wieringa, 2024-04-04 Here the history of the Indonesian LBT movement is charted from invisibility to visibility and now as it moves again into hiding In the early 1980s during the oppressive military dictatorship called the New Order in Indonesia the first organizations of Lesbian Bisexual and Trans persons were established They were short lived but prepared the ground for a more comprehensive LBT rights movement after the democratic opening of society in 1998 From 2000 to 2015 the visibility of the movement grew until a vicious state sponsored backlash set in driven by majoritarian fundamentalist Islamist groups Saskia Wieringa tracks the movement s progress and explores the persistence of the butch femme model of relationships the proliferations of identities family violence and conversion therapy religion and the anti LGBT campaign In its insistence on the local dynamics of this movement the book aims to debunk the idea that homosexuality is a Western import Chapters deal with the many religious and secular phenomena that are linked with gender diversity and same sex relations traditionally and the erasure of many of these traditions is explained using the concept of postcolonial amnesia A Political Biography of the Indonesian Lesbian Bisexual and Trans Movement is also a contribution to the growing literature on decolonization studies pointing out that its dynamics its historical course and its present condition different as they are from the dominant Western view on a global LGBT movement needs to be considered as valuable as accounts of Western LGBT histories are

Sex and Sexualities in Contemporary Indonesia Linda Rae Bennett, Sharyn Graham Davies, 2014-12-05 Winner of the 2015 Ruth Benedict Prize for Outstanding Edited Volume Sex sexuality and sexual relationships are hotly debated in Indonesia triggering complex and often passionate responses This innovative volume explores these issues in a variety of ways It highlights historical and newer forms of sexual diversity as well as the social responses they provoke It critiques differing representations of sexuality pointing to the multiplicity of discourses within which sexuality and the sexual are understood in modern day Indonesia Placing sexuality centre stage and locating it within the specific historical context of the Reformasi era this landmark volume explores understandings and practices across a wide variety of sites focusing in on a diverse group of Indonesian actors and the contested meanings that sexuality carries Beginning with a substantive introduction and concluding with a scholarly reflection on key issues the volume is framed around the four themes of sexual politics health diversity and representations It seeks both to present new empirical findings as well as to add to existing theoretical analysis This work fills an important gap in our understanding of the evolution and contemporary dynamics of Indonesian sexualities It will be of interest to scholars and academics from disciplines including gender and sexuality studies global health sexual and reproductive health anthropology sociology and Asian studies

Gender, Sexuality and Islam in Contemporary Indonesia Diego Garcia Rodriguez, 2023-08-31 Gender Sexuality and Islam in Contemporary Indonesia explores gender sexuality and religion in contemporary Indonesia It is the first book length analysis of the experiences of queer Muslims in Indonesia the largest Muslim country and the world's fourth most populous nation as well as the first monograph exploring the voices of their allies vis vis the role of Indonesian progressive Islam and Islam Nusantara An ethnographic study based on semi structured in depth interviews participant observation and media analysis the book analyses how queer Indonesian Muslims come to and navigate their gender sexual and religious subjectivities and subject positions beliefs and practices This is done by paying attention to their interactions with family education media and peers It also investigates the emergence of queer religious geographies through the case of an annual camp leading to alternative discussions on gender sexuality and religion impacting processes of subjectivity formation among participants The author draws on recent scholarship that attends to agency not merely as a synonym for resistance but also as a modality of action to examine the rise of queer religious agentic systems through the everyday practices of queer Muslims Finally the book explores the background of the allies of queer Muslims who have come to develop queer inclusive strategies from within Islam by considering the processes that shaped their advocacy and the role of Islam Nusantara The book reflects on the critical role of Islam for gender and sexual minorities in Indonesia Presenting the voices practices and activism of present day Indonesians to explore the position of Islam as a source of emotional strength guidance and social support this book will be of interest to researchers in the fields of Gender and Sexuality Studies Religious Studies Asian Studies and Southeast Asian Studies Islamic Studies and Queer Anthropology

Queer Excursions Lal Zimman, Jenny Lynn Davis, Joshua Raclaw, 2014 Across scholarship on gender and sexuality binaries like female versus male and gay versus straight have been problematized as a symbol of the stigmatization and erasure of non normative subjects and practices The chapters in Queer Excursions offer a series of distinct perspectives on these binaries as well as on a number of other less immediately apparent dichotomies that nevertheless permeate the gendered and sexual lives of speakers Several chapters focus on the limiting or misleading qualities of binaristic analyses while others suggest that binaries are a crucial component of social meaning within particular communities of study Rather than simply accepting binary structures as inevitable or discarding them from our analyses entirely based on their oppressive or reductionary qualities this volume advocates for a re theorization of the binary that affords more complex and contextually grounded engagement with speakers own orientations to dichotomous systems It is from this perspective that contributors identify a number of diverging conceptualizations of binaries including those that are non mutually exclusive those that liberate in the same moment that they constrain those that are imposed implicitly by researchers and those that re contextualize familiar divisions with innovative meanings Each chapter offers a unique perspective on locally salient linguistic practices that help constitute gender and sexuality in marginalized communities As a collection Queer Excursions argues that researchers must be careful to avoid the assumption that our own preconceptions about binary social structures will be shared by the communities we study Maid to Queer Francisca Yuenki Lai,2021-11-03 Maid to Queer is the first book about Asian female migrant workers who develop same sex relationships in a host city Based on participant observation and in depth interviews with Indonesian domestic workers in Hong Kong the book explores the meanings of same sex relationships to these migrant women Instead of searching for reasons to explain why they engage in a same sex relationship this book provides an ethnographic perspective by addressing their Sunday activities and considering how migration policies and the practices of Hong Kong people unintentionally produce alternative sexuality and desires for them The author contrasts the migrant experiences of same sex relationships with the Western discourse that individuals carry a strong sense of sexual identification prior to migration same sex desires among Indonesian domestic workers are often not realized until they leave home Addressing the changes from maid to queer this book documents the intersections of domestic work labor migration race and religion on the sexual subject formation specifically how Indonesian women negotiate heteronormativity and remake a space for their love sex and intimacy For those interested in lesbian studies Asian labor migration sexual citizenship and queer migration this ethnography fills an important gap in explaining how the feminization of international migration and the constraints imposed on live in domestic workers unintentionally become productive possibilities of queerness and normativity Maid to Queer combines insights from migration studies with those of LGBT studies contributing to both It examines the sexual subjectivities and shifting sexualities of these domestic workers in relation to both migrant labor policies and the anxieties and practices of their employers in Hong Kong Lai s book is very enticing to read Saskia Wieringa University of Amsterdam This is the first book I know of exploring sexuality among domestic workers Lai shows that sexuality is relative to both imagination and opportunity and that it can change over time Women may desire women or they may not context shapes this desire and how this desire plays out Sharyn Davies Monash University
